I don't think there's much to say. We will see what happens when the court issues its decision.

Subject: Pebble and 9th circuit

Hi OGC – I saw this story on Pebble in the news. I know we have this in the litigation section on the briefing paper. Is there anything we need to update on the paper or have a short bullet that we should share with leadership on this based on what we have in the paper?

I didn't read the article fully and just saw the headline since I'm juggling today. So if you respond we have it covered I'm good 😊

Thanks Cindy
